NOTICE

1. This passport remains the property of the Canadian Government and must not be altered. It may be used only by the rightful bearer who should safeguard it in every way.

2. If lost or stolen, particulars of the passport should be reported to the local police, the Passport Office in Ottawa or, if lost abroad, to the nearest Canadian or British diplomatic or consular office. If the passport is surrendered to any person or agency outside the Canadian Government (e.g. to obtain visas) and not promptly returned the facts should be reported to the nearest Canadian passport issuing office.

3. In an emergency application for passport facilities may be made to the nearest British diplomatic or consular office.

4. Canadian passports have a maximum life of five years from date of issue. They are issued on the basis of the existence of documentary evidence of Canadian citizenship.

5. The names of Canadian children under the age of 16 years may be included in the passport of one parent, but not of both, provided they are the natural-born or legally adopted children of the bearer. When a child travels on a parent's passport he must be accompanied by that parent. Children 16 years of age and over must obtain separate passports. The birth abroad of a child whose responsible parent is a Canadian citizen must be registered within two years of birth for the child to acquire Canadian citizenship.

6. Canadian citizens intending to reside abroad for more than three months in a country other than Britain or the United States are advised to register at the nearest Canadian diplomatic, consular or trade office, or in their absence, at the nearest British consulate. Changes of address or departure from the country should also be reported. Registration helps Canadian authorities to assist Canadian citizens in an emergency.

AVIS

1. Le présent passeport demeure la propriété du Gouvernement canadien et ne doit subir aucune modification. Il ne peut être utilisé que par le titulaire qui doit en prendre le plus grand soin.

2. Le titulaire doit aviser immédiatement la police locale de la perte ou du vol d'un passeport canadien. De plus, si la perte a lieu au Canada il doit communiquer avec le Bureau des passeports à Ottawa. Par contre, si la perte a lieu à l'étranger il faut en informer le plus proche représentant diplomatique ou consulaire du Canada, ou de la Grande-Bretagne. Si ce passeport est confié à une personne ou à un service n'appartenant pas au Gouvernement canadien (e.g. pour obtention de visa) et qu'il n'est pas promptement retourné, le titulaire doit en aviser le plus proche représentant diplomatique ou consulaire canadien ou britannique.

3. En cas d'urgence, une demande de passeport peut être faite au plus proche bureau diplomatique ou consulaire de la Grande-Bretagne.

4. Les passeports canadiens ont une durée maximum de cinq ans à compter de la date de délivrance. Il est indispensable pour les obtenir, de fournir des preuves documentaires de la citoyenneté canadienne.

5. Les noms d'enfants de moins de 16 ans peuvent figurer dans le passeport du père ou de la mère, mais non dans les deux, à condition qu'ils soient les enfants naturels ou les enfants légalement adoptés du titulaire. L'enfant qui voyage au moyen du passeport de son père ou de sa mère doit être accompagné par cette personne. Les enfants de 16 ans et plus doivent obtenir des passeports séparés. On enregistre à l'étranger l'acquisition de la citoyenneté canadienne que si le parent responsable de l'enfant est enregistré, et que si l'enfant est immatriculé dans les deux ans qui suivent sa naissance.

6. Les citoyens canadiens qui ne résident plus de trois mois dans le pays autre que la Grande-Bretagne ou les États-Unis ont intérêt à s'inscrire auprès du plus proche bureau diplomatique, consulaire ou commercial du Canada ou, à défaut, auprès du consulat britannique le plus rapproché; ils devraient aussi prévenir ce poste de tout changement d'adresse. Cette précaution aide les autorités canadiennes, en diverses circonstances, à secourir leurs ressortissants.
