WARNING

1. This passport is a valuable document. It must not be altered in any way. It should be safeguarded with the utmost care; if lost or destroyed, the circumstances should be reported immediately to the local police and, in Canada, to the Passport Officer, Ottawa; abroad, to the nearest Canadian or United Kingdom diplomatic or consular authorities.
2. This passport is valid for five years from date of issue and may be renewed for an additional period of five years. Renewal may be obtained in Canada from the Passport Officer, Ottawa; abroad, from the Canadian Embassy, Legation, High Commissioner's Office, or Consulate in the country in which the bearer is residing or visiting. If there is no such Canadian office, application may be made to the nearest United Kingdom Consulate or British Passport Office.
3. The passport is only valid for travel to the country or countries named on page four, but may be endorsed for additional countries on request to the authorities mentioned in para. 2 above. It does not confer the right to enter any foreign country; the bearer should enquire at the nearest Consulate of the foreign country which he proposes to visit about the conditions of admission.
4. Canadian citizens by naturalization certificate or citizenship certificate should bear in mind that unless, under the laws of the state to which they originally belonged or by the provisions of a treaty, they have ceased to be subjects of that state, their certificates have no effect within its boundaries, nor can the good offices of His Majesty's Representatives abroad be extended to them there.
5. A Canadian citizen who was not a Canadian citizen by birth should take steps to protect his citizenship within six years of leaving Canada, through application for extension.
6. Children born abroad to Canadian citizens should be registered under the Canadian Citizenship Act within two years of birth if it is desired that they should have Canadian citizenship.

AVERTISSEMENT

1. Ce passeport est un document de valeur, qu'il faut conserver précieusement et n'abîmer ni modifier d'aucune façon. S'il est détruit ou égaré, il faut en informer aussitôt les autorités policières du lieu et, si l'on est au Canada, le Bureau des Passeports, à Ottawa; lorsqu'on est à l'étranger, avertir les plus proches autorités diplomatiques ou consulaires du Canada ou du Royaume-Uni.
2. Le présent passeport est valable pour cinq ans à compter de la date de sa délivrance. Il est renouvelable pour une période de même durée, au Canada par le Bureau des Passeports, situé à Ottawa, et à l'extérieur par l'ambassade, légation, haut commissariat ou consulat du Canada, selon le pays où l'on réside ou voyage. En l'absence d'une représentation canadienne dans ce pays, s'adresser au plus proche consulat du Royaume-Uni ou bureau de passeports britannique.
3. Le présent passeport n'est valable que pour les pays énumérés en page 4; sur demande, d'autres pays peuvent être ajoutés à la liste par les autorités ci-dessus (paragraphe 2). La possession d'un passeport ne confère aucun droit d'admission en pays étranger; les conditions requises pour entrer dans un pays seront indiquées au titulaire par le plus proche consulat de ce pays.
4. Si l'on est citoyen canadien par le fait d'un certificat de naturalisation ou de citoyenneté, ne pas oublier que de tels certificats n'ont aucune valeur dans les limites de son Etat d'origine et que l'on ne peut y compter sur les bons offices des missions extérieures de Sa Majesté, sauf si, de par les lois dudit Etat ou les dispositions d'un traité, l'on a perdu la nationalité de son Etat d'origine.
5. Si l'on est citoyen canadien mais non pas par naissance et que l'on s'absente du Canada, il faut, dans les six ans après son départ du Canada, solliciter la confirmation de sa citoyenneté canadienne pour une nouvelle durée.
6. Les enfants naissant à l'étranger de parents qui sont citoyens canadiens doivent, pour être eux-mêmes citoyens canadiens, être enregistrés en conformité de la Loi sur la citoyenneté canadienne dans les deux ans après leur naissance.
